

An opportunity to interact with other business leaders

A half-day workshop exclusively for presidents, company owners and economic decision-makers designed to identify the changes that businesses are now faced with and that they will continue to encounter into the 21st century.

We will share with you proven concepts that:

Increase the productivity and performance of individuals so that company profitability increases as a result

Bring about a shift in behaviour and attitude (We know that all the skill training in the world will not produce measurable results, without first a shift in attitude and behaviour.)

Achieve personal and organizational goals, whilst enhancing corporate culture.

Define the outstanding qualities of Leaders and the difference between a Leader and a Manager*

The seminar starts at 8 am with a complementary continental breakfast followed by a workshop which will conclude by 12:00 pm.
